We need to set up a fundraising meeting with Brad Martin to review the OSC3 plan, etc. Would be good for Amy to go, along with the two of you. I've learned that he is VERY interested in offender re-entry. He's working with WIN on some things – invited Kevin Woods and some others to his house to discuss -- and likely would be very interested in the social impact bond/pay for success model that we're developing with WIN for our Re-entry initiative.

I'll fill you in more. But you guys should get on his calendar asap. And Bill, once the meeting's set, it would be a good idea for you to get with Kevin Woods and understand everything he's doing on re-entry. He said today that Brad had asked him to go do some research on what jobs ex-felons can do/will get hired for and what companies are open to hiring them. Also wanted to know what kinds of training can be provided...
